

As a reporter, Ellen West has an inherent need to dig up secrets and expose them, and the Baxter School of the Arts is concealing a secret she has vowed to find. But on the path to the truth, she finds Gabe Kent, former ball player, and he sets about the path to finding out her truth, and it's much more complicated than anyone could have suspected. A school for the talented and the wounded. A secret that threatens to destroy the whole system. A threat that's lurking in the background. Blinding passion that clouds her vision. A love unlike she could ever have dreamed. Gabe Kent might be more than she can handle. But she certainly deserves more than she deserves. Recommended for adult readers due to language, sexual content and adult situations
